

Phormiums

Selling

March onwards

Features

Strong sword-like foliage all year round, in various colours. Flowers on mature plants. Available in many different colours.

Benefits

An architectural feature plant offering good height, structure and colour to any border. Easy and trouble free to grow.

Story

Commonly known as the New Zealand Evergreen. The traditional varieties were used by Maoris for plaiting into mats, containers and shoes.

Basic Information

Plant type

Architectural Shrub

Flowers

Only on very mature plants

Height after 4 years

1.2m (4')

Spread after 4 years

1.2m (4')

Position

Sunny spot in fertile well-drained soil

Hardiness

Hardy to -5°C