

Pieris japonica 'Bonfire'

Selling	March and April
Features	Compact evergreen shrub with masses of upright white flowers in March and April, accompanied by bright red new leaves
Benefits	An attractive hardy shrub ideal for borders or patio tubs. It provides early garden colour with unique red buds and fragrant white flowers. Interest continues with bright red new foliage all through the growing season
Story	Pieris japonica are natives of Japan , Taiwan and Eastern China. Bonfire is one of the more unusual forms.
Basic Information
Plant type	Evergreen shrub
Flowers	Red buds and white flowers March and April
Height after 4 years	90cm (3')
Spread after 4 years	90cm (3')
Position	Sun or semi shade
Hardiness	Hardy to -15°C